THE TENNESEE WORLD LANGUAGE TEACHING ASSOCIATION

CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE I. NAME

The name of this organization shall be the Tennessee World Language Teaching Association.

ARTICLE II. PURPOSE

The basic goal of the Tennessee World Language Teaching Association shall be to improve and to foster the teaching of world languages, literatures, and cultures through service to the teachers of Tennessee. The Association is motivated by the desire to improve communication among Tennessee language teachers, to provide educational services to its members, to conduct appropriate meetings, and to develop and disseminate information related to the field of world language education. The purpose of the Association is to serve the best interests of world language instruction.

ARTICLE III. MEMBERSHIP

Section 3.1. Teachers. All teachers of all world languages, classical and modern, of all levels from kindergarten through university, of both public and private institutions, are eligible for membership in the Association.

Section 3.2. Other Members. Persons with a demonstrated interest in world languages and/or world language teaching may be accepted for membership in the Association.

Section 3.3. Patrons. Educational and other administrative units or any individuals with a demonstrated interest in world languages and/or world language teaching may be accepted as patrons of the Association. Patrons can advise and support the organization but may not hold an elected office in concert with the Organization’s Standing Committee Rules.

Section 3.4. Good Standing. Persons eligible for membership become members in good standing upon payment of dues for the fiscal year.

Section 3.5. Dues. Dues, membership categories, and the fiscal year shall be set as provided in the By-Laws of the Association.

ARTICLE IV. OFFICERS

Section 4.1. Remuneration: The officers of the Association shall be the President, the First Vice-President, the Second Vice-President, the Secretary, the Treasurer, the Immediate Past President and the Conference Secretary. All officers will serve without remuneration.

Section 4.2. Terms of Office. Terms of office shall be set forth in the By-Laws.

Section 4.3. Selection. The second Vice-President shall be elected by the membership. The Second Vice-President will serve as the First Vice-President the following year and as President and Past President in the contiguous and subsequent years. The President shall appoint the Treasurer and Secretary and has the right to extend the service of these officers in agreement with said officers.

Section 4.4. The President. The president shall preside at all meetings of the Association, shall appoint such committees as may be necessary or desirable for the proper functioning of the Association, and shall represent the Association in its contacts with other organizations and the public.
Section 4.5. The First Vice-President. The First Vice-President shall assume the responsibilities of the President in the President’s absence and shall assist the President in various duties, which include those set forth in the By-Laws.

Section 4.6. The Second Vice-President. In the event of the absence of both the President and the First Vice-President, the Second Vice-President shall assume the duties and prerogatives of the President. The Second Vice-President shall also assist the President and First Vice-President in various duties, set forth in the By-Laws.

Section 4.7. The Secretary. The Secretary shall be responsible, under the direction of the President, for the correspondence of the Association. The Secretary shall maintain accurate records of all official business and transactions of the Association, including slates of candidates and election results. The Secretary shall provide copies of the minutes of meetings to the Board of Directors, make the minutes available to members in good standing upon request, and maintain an accurate membership list. The Secretary shall also inform the newly elected Officers and Board members concerning the Constitution, the By-Laws, and the Standing Rules of the Association.

Section 4.8. The Treasurer. The Treasurer shall maintain, according to standard bookkeeping procedures, accurate records of all financial matters pertaining to the Association and shall submit the Association’s books of record for audit upon request. The Treasurer will file all annual reports as required to maintain the Non-Profit Status (501c3). The Treasurer shall keep the President apprised of the financial status of the Association. Specific authorizations for expenditures shall be set forth in the By-Laws.

Section 4.9. The Immediate Past President. The Immediate Past President shall attend meetings and serve at the discretion of the President. The immediate Past President shall serve as an advisor to the President and shall assist the members of the Executive Council as is appropriate. Various other duties are set forth in the By-Laws.

Section 4.10. The Executive Council. The Executive Council of the Association shall act for the membership between membership meetings. It shall be comprised of the Officers, the immediate Past President, and designated appointed positions such as the Conference Secretary and the Historian. The Executive Council shall appoint the Webmaster, who shall serve contiguous terms in agreement with said officer. Various committee Chairs may be invited by the Executive Board as needed.

Section 4.11. The Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall consist of the Executive Council, the representatives of the affiliated organizations and eighteen members elected at large from the Association. The candidates for the eighteen positions shall be chosen in a manner which will attempt to ensure representation from all major languages and levels taught and from all major areas of the state. The term of office for Board Members elected at large shall be three years, after which there must be a lapse of one year before any individual can be re-elected to the Board. Board Members elected at large may be elected as officers and retiring officers may be elected to the Board without a year’s waiting period in either case.

Section 4.12. Duties of the Board of Directors. Members of the Board of Directors shall attend all regular and special meetings of the Association in order to advise and consult with the President and the Executive Council. Members of the Board of Directors shall serve as liaisons between the Board and the membership.
Section 4.13. Vacancies. The Executive Council shall fill vacancies in elective offices. Officers so appointed shall serve until the next regular election.

Section 4.14. Appointed Positions. Appointed positions, such as Conference Secretary, Historian, Webmaster, and others, shall be created as needed by the Board of Directors. These appointed positions will be added and deleted by vote of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE V. MEETINGS

Section 5.1. Annual Meetings. An annual full meeting of the Association shall be arranged by the Board of Directors.

Section 5.2. Other Meetings. Other full meetings of the Association shall be called by the Executive Council on written petition by no fewer than twenty-five members.

Section 5.3. Notice. Members shall be notified of the date of regular and special meetings including the purpose of the meeting. Notice of regular meetings shall not be fewer nor more than thirty days prior to the meeting date. Notice of special meetings shall be no fewer nor more than fifteen days prior to the meeting date.

Section 5.4. Meetings of the Board of Directors. The Directors shall meet four times a year. The Board of Directors shall be notified at least two weeks before the meeting date.

Section 5.5. Rules of Order. Meetings of the Association, its Board of Directors, its Executive Council, and its Committees shall be governed by the latest edition of Robert’s Rules of Order when they are not in conflict with the Association’s Constitution and By-Laws.

Section 5.6. Quorum. Fifty members in good standing shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at meetings of the general membership. A majority shall constitute a quorum for meetings of the Committees, Executive Council, and the Board of Directors of the Association.

ARTICLE VI. AMENDMENTS

Section 6.1. Proposed Amendments. Amendments to the Constitution may be proposed by the Board of Directors or by petition of no fewer than fifty members in good standing.

Section 6.2. Amendments to the Constitution shall be submitted in writing to the entire membership.

Section 6.3. Power to Amend the Constitution. A proposed Constitutional amendment shall be accepted when two-thirds of the members voting approve it.
